CEFFORT AB supports your company

CEFFORT AB is a Swedish entrepreneurial company specialized in development work in different areas of Life Sciences. We support your R&D, your business development, your manufacturing, your technology evaluation, your due diligence and even help you explore new market opportunities.

Ceffort represent you effectively

We set-up, coordinate and lead the work on your behalf to the extent that we agree upon. Meanwhile, you can stay focused on your core business.

Specialist teams takes you safely to the goal

Whatever the project we assemble a customized team of experts. Through Ceffort Life Science Network (CELS) we can provide you with all key competence that is needed to solve a problem skillfully and safely.

Our trademark name CEFFORT[®] is short for Collaborative EFFORT - our way of getting the job done at a minimum expense of your own time.
